Rob's President's Message

Greetings fellow bubble makers!

Well, our freezer is full of bugs, and the scuba is rinsed, dried, and back in the storage bin. It must be time for the August meeting of the Jacksonville Scubanauts. I'm looking forward to tallying the club lobster count for mini season 2016, so let's hear those dive reports!

Nadine has an interesting author lined up for this month's speaker, so we'll be coming out of this meeting with late summer reading assignments too.

Summer is not over yet, so anyone with suggestions for dive gatherings, please bring them on too. I hope to see everyone there. Cheers!

Thanks,
-Rob
